Indeed it does.

I wonder how, if at all, Anthony III is related to Angelo, the original owner of the landfill or Robert, Angelo's son. I know that Angelo had a brother named Anthony who had some involvement with the landfill after Angelo died in 1952. I suspect that Anthony III is that Anthony's son. I also suspect that these guys have a lot more money than they would have us believe.

Have you ever considered doing a 104(e) seeking financial and insurance information from the Miele's?
